1. I have been invited to present orally a lecture titled, "An Arctic Ocean Survey," at my alma mater, the University of Rhode Island. The University has offered to pay travel and per diem expenses.

2. If approved, I intend to give the oral presentation at the University's School of Marine Affairs on November 25, 1986. This opportunity will help me to maintain my academic contacts at a major US oceanographic institution.

3. The presentation will cover various aspects of the Arctic, including mineral and energy potential, pollution, fisheries, meteorological and oceanographic research, and geopolitical concerns. All information will be taken from unclassified sources, and all discussions will be at the unclassified level.
